Questions 176-180 refer to the following testimonial.

Life-Changing Therapy

By: Meredith Thomas

Physical Therapy at Fast Rehabilitation changed my life — or should I say helped me to keep my life. I will be forever indebted to the doctors and technicians at this fabulous facility.

In 2011, shortly after I turned 50 years old, I was diagnosed with stage III breast cancer. A couple of months after my surgery, I realized that I was unable to straighten my left arm. I started physical therapy at Fast Rehabilitation for a condition called “cording.” They explained that, due to the surgery, the fascia in my arm (due to the surgery) was like a bowl of spaghetti and would need to be “untangled”. They used a technique that uses a molded plastic tool to comb out the fascia. I was skeptical, but after just one treatment, I had significant relief.

Three months later, I was on the road to recovery. My husband and I planned a trip to Killarney Provincial Park in Ontario for the following summer, but in February 2013, I dislocated and fractured my left shoulder in a snow tubing accident. I was devastated and thought the trip would have to be cancelled. So back to the ever-capable and knowledgeable hands at Fast Rehabilitation I went.

On my first visit, I was asked what my goal for recovery was. I said that I would like to keep my back-country trip. We had seven months. With excellent treatment and lots of hard work I was able to take the back-country trip, complete with canoeing and backpacking, without any problems.

Again, MANY thanks to Fast Rehabilitation for helping me to reach my goal and for getting me back to the activities I love.

If you, yourself, have any physical limitations that are inhibiting your goals or plans, give Fast Rehabilitation a call at 703-225-6262. They're located at 5535 Weems Lane in Richmond, Virginia or you can visit them on the Internet at www.fastrehab.com.

| From: | Andrea Sheppard |
| To: | Erin Rodgers |
| Subject: | Re: Inventory |
| Date: | August 4 |

Dear Erin,

I put the inventory list in your office mailbox — thanks for the reminder to do so. I have a special request item for consideration. Here is the required information:

1. Computer projector
2. $180
 - That's with a 20% off coupon I have at Technology Bay. The coupon expires at the end of the month.
3. A projector has multiple possibilities for use. My room is already equipped with a projector screen and computer, so no other supplies will be required. I would use the projector to show video clips relevant to the lesson, legibly display the day's notes (as you may know, I am infamous for my terrible handwriting!), and even display student examples of work (as I often have them email me their work).
4. I feel having a computer projector in my room would greatly impact student learning in a positive way. I would be able to bring so many more resources to the daily lesson plan. There is a whole bank of online video tutorials I could access that would help both engage the students in learning as well as explain skills in a new and interesting way.

Thank you!

Andrea Sheppard
Teacher, Math Department, Coronado High School

191. What is the purpose of the first email?

- (A) To inform teachers about a decrease in funding
- (B) To remind teachers to purchase needed supplies
- (C) To request teachers participate in a survey
- (D) To notify teachers of an upcoming deadline

192. In the second e-mail, the word "consideration" in paragraph 1, line 2 is closest in meaning to

- (A) contemplation
- (B) kindness
- (C) repentance
- (D) inheritance

193. What information in #3 in the second email was NOT requested?

- (A) Prices of the item
- (B) Items already in the classroom
- (C) Intended use of the item
- (D) Benefits to the students

194. What can be inferred from the email?

- (A) The school should provide all the things requested.
- (B) Andrea's handwriting is hard to understand.
- (C) Special requests must be made in person.
- (D) The projector will not be approved by the school board.

195. What category is Ms. Sheppard's special request?
